Breakfast at the Hotel.

Proceed Sightseeing at Pashupatinath, Bouddhanath, Swayambhunath, Kathmandu Durbar Square with expert guides.

Pashupatinath- Pashupatinath, situated in Kathmandu, Nepal, stands as a revered Hindu temple dedicated to Lord Shiva, drawing pilgrims and tourists globally. This sprawling complex along the Bagmati River not only houses the iconic pagoda-style main temple adorned with intricate carvings and precious metals but also underscored by beliefs in its purifying powers, where visitors seek blessings, absolution, and enlightenment. Designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site, Pashupatinath embodies a rich tapestry of cultural, religious, and historical heritage, with events like the Maha Shivaratri festival amplifying its allure, attracting throngs of devotees for vibrant celebrations and profound spiritual experiences.

Bouddhanath- Boudhanath is a big and important Buddhist place in Kathmandu, Nepal. The main thing there is a huge white stupa, which is like a monument, with lots of colorful flags. Around it, there are many shops, monasteries, and things related to Tibetan Buddhism. People like to walk around the stupa, turn prayer wheels, and enjoy the calm feeling there. It's famous for its Buddhist culture and attracts visitors who want to learn and feel peaceful, Afternoon Lunch at Indian Restaurant

Swayambhunath – Swayambhunath is also called as Monkey Temple, is an old religious place on a hill in Kathmandu, Nepal. People who follow Buddhism and Hinduism both love this site. It has a big white stupa with colorful flags and many smaller stupas, statues, and temples around it. The view from up there is really nice, and you can also see monkeys, which is why it's called the Monkey Temple. Many people visit to feel peaceful and learn about spirituality.

Afternoon Lunch at Indian Restaurant

Kathmandu Durbar Square - So far as art and architecture are concerned, you need to look no further. This complex of places, courtyards and temples built between the 12th and 18th century. The Durbar Square protected by UNESCO as the world heritage site in the social, religious and urban focal point of the city. After sightseeing back to hotel

FLY TO POKHARA (25MINUTES)Day 03: Saturday 07th December 2024

After Breakfast, fly to Pokhara.

Check in hotel and refreshment.

Then proceed for sightseeing with our expert guide.

Sightseeing at Gupteswar Mahadev, Devi's Fall, Taal Barahi Temple and Fewa Lake.

Gupteshwar Mahadev- This Cave lies in the southern end of the city; it is just 2 Km from Central Pokhara. The entrance is right across from Devi's fall and the cave is nearly about 3 km long. The cave has got both the narrow and wide spaces inside it. One can have an astonishing view of Devi s fall from inside the cave except in rainy seasons. The cave is provided with artificial lighting systems. The cave is also an important religious site for Hindus.

Devi falls- Locally known as Patale Chhango (Hell's fall), Devi s fall is one of the major tourist destinations in Pokhara. It is just 2 km away from Central Pokhara. It is an awesome waterfall and you can't stop yourself saying WOW. Devi s fall plunges into a cave and disappears into the earth. In the monsoon, the sight is most spectacular. Legend has it that the name was put in the memory of a tourist named David who was swept down the waterfall. This fall is also known as Davy's fall, David's fall or Davis's fall, meaning the same water fall.

Tal barahi temple - Lying in the island of the middle of the Fewa Lake, the Barahi temple is the most important monument in Pokhara. This two-storyed pagoda is dedicated to the boar manifestation of' Ajima, representative of the force of Goddess Durga. Barahi is pictured with the face of a boar with a cup in one hand and fish in the other. Devotees can be seen carrying male animals across the lake for sacrifice, especially on Saturdays. Set in stunning surroundings, many find Barahi Temple a peaceful place to relax as one can enjoy the green forest scenery just beyond the south end of the lake, full-scale scenery of the lake and amazing reflection of the Annapurna and Fishtail Mountains on the surface of the lake

Lunch at the hotel.

Fewa lake -The second largest lake in the country covering an area of about 4.43 km² (1.7 sq mi) is the center of attraction for every person visiting Pokhara. It is the largest among the eight lakes lying in Pokhara. One can sail or row a hired boat across the lake or visit Barahi Temple situated on the island located in the lake. The lake is ideal for relaxation, boating and viewing the mountains as well. One can also fish in the lake but be sure that you are fishing at the right place. Reflection of Macchapuchre (Mount Fishtail) in the lake makes you feel more exciting. So, don't just read this, pack up your luggage and be there to exploit the natural beauty. The eastern shore of the lake, popularly known as lakeside or Baidam, is the favorite home base for travelers and consists of endless strip of lodges, restaurants, bookshops, souvenir shops. After sightseeing back to hotel Dinner and overnight stay at hotel.

Meal Plan: Breakfast | Lunch | Dinner

POKHARA SIGHTSEEING

Day 04: Sunday 08th December 2024

Early morning Sunrise view at Sarangkot. It is a hill near Pokhara where you can see an amazing sunrise. People wake up early and hike there to watch the sun come up over the mountains, making the sky look really pretty with different colors. It's a famous place for tourists and photographers because the view is so stunning., Then back to hotel, Refreshment and Breakfast. Then, at afternoon, proceed for sightseeing at

Pumdikot and Peace Stupa

Pumdikot - It now recognized as a burgeoning religious tourism hub owing to its majestic Shiva statue, the second tallest in Nepal at 51 feet tall. Situated atop a white stupa that adds an additional 57 feet to its grandeur, the entire structure stands at an impressive 108 feet. This monumental creation is part of a comprehensive project that also includes the development of the Martyr's Memorial Park, complete with a model of Mount Sumeru featuring Shiva and Parvati.

Lunch at the hotel.

Peace Stupa- The Pokhara Shanti Stupa is a Buddhist monument located on Anadu Hill in Pokhara, Nepal, built by Nipponzan-Myōhōji monk Morioka Sonin with local support and guidance from Nichidatsu Fujii, symbolizing peace as its name suggests. Sitting at 1100 meters on Anadu Hill, it was inaugurated in 1973 with relics of Buddha. This Peace Pagoda is one of Nepal's two out of eighty worldwide and has become a major tourist attraction, offering breathtaking views of the Annapurna range, Pokhara city and Fewa Lake. Dinner and overnight stay at hotel.
